Dear Municipal Election Candidate:

Thank you for your consideration to offer your services to the citizens of White Oak by becoming a candidate for this year's municipal election. Your candidacy entails the obligation to comply with certain applicable state statutes and local ordinances. In an effort to assist you, I have prepared this "Candidate's Packet" with the necessary forms and pertinent instructions. I urge you to read this letter and the enclosed material prior to filling out the specific forms.

The Office of the City Secretary can advise candidates when reports are due, however the duty of the office is limited to accepting and filing the various applications, affidavits, and statements. There is no legal duty to inform anyone of the necessity of or deadlines for filing any of the documents or to advise anyone in regard to the meaning and requirements of statutes. Although the staff will accept your filings, noting the date and time of filing of the forms, there will be no judgment or comment upon the timeliness or sufficiency of reports filed.

You may direct questions about election laws to the Secretary of State at (800) 252-8683 or (512) 463-5650, or go online at www.sos.state.tx.us.

It is your duty to become familiar with the laws applicable to campaigning for office. All documents are considered public record and open for inspection by any person.

The first day of filing is January 28, 2015. The Appointment of Candidate's Campaign Treasurer Form must be submitted with the Application form or shortly thereafter. It must be filed with the City Secretary before a candidate may accept political contributions or make political expenditures. If you do not intend to accept more than $500 in political contributions or make more than $500 in political expenditures, the Candidate Modified Reporting Declaration should be completed. However, during the campaign, if the expenditures or contributions exceed $500, the Form ACTA and the contribution reports would need to be submitted. The Code of Fair Campaign Practices form is on a voluntary basis; however, the Texas State Ethics Commission encourages all candidates to subscribe to this Code.

Should you have any questions regarding reporting procedures, contributions, or expenditures, please call the Texas Ethics Commission at (512) 463-5800, or online at www.ethics.state.tx.us.

Your interest in municipal government is appreciated, and I trust this will be a positive and exciting experience for you and your supporters. If you have any concerns or if I may be of assistance, do not hesitate to contact me at (903) 759-3936 x7024, via email at: sroberts@cityofwhiteoak.com, or come by in person. My best wishes to you!

Sherry Roberts, TRMC

No officer may appoint, or vote for or confirm the appointment or employment of any person related within the second degree by affinity (marriage) or the third degree by consanguinity (blood) to himself, or to any other member of the governing body or court on which he serves when the compensation of that person is to be paid out of public funds or fees of office. However, nothing in the law prevents the appointment, voting for, or confirmation of anyone who has been continuously employed in the office or employment for the following period prior to the election or appointment of the officer or member related to the employee in the prohibited degree: six months, if the officer or member is elected at the general election for state and county officers.

No candidate may take action to influence an employee of the office to which the candidate is seeking election or an employee or officer of the governmental body to which the candidate is seeking election regarding the appointment or employment of a person related to the candidate in a prohibited degree as noted above. Examples of relatives within the third degree of consanguinity are as follows:

- (1) First degree: parent, child;
- (2) Second degree: brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild;

CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play that every candidate and political committee in this state has a moral obligation to observe and uphold, in order that, after vigorously contested but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their constitutional rights to a free and untrammelled choice and the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

- (1) I will conduct the campaign openly and publicly and limit attacks on my opponent to legitimate challenges to my opponent’s record and stated positions on issues.
- (2) I will not use or permit the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or the candidate’s personal or family life.
- (3) I will not use or permit any appeal to negative prejudice based on race, sex, religion, or national origin.
- (4) I will not use campaign material of any sort that misrepresents, distorts, or otherwise falsifies the facts, nor will I use malicious or unfounded accusations that aim at creating or exploiting doubts, without justification, as to the personal integrity or patriotism of my opponent.
- (5) I will not undertake or condone any dishonest or unethical practice that tends to corrupt or undermine our system of free elections or that hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters, including any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (6) I will defend and uphold the right of every qualified voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process, and will not engage in any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (7) I will immediately and publicly repudiate methods and tactics that may come from others that I have pledged not to use or condone. I shall take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this code or the laws governing elections.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office in the State of Texas or campaign treasurer of a political committee, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct the campaign in accordance with the above principles and practices.
